

THE FEAR OF GOD - About the fear itself

Found in 29 verses from our list

Unlike many people today, Scripture describes the "fear of God" in a very positive way. Not only is it a necessity, but it is also good! It is to influence all aspects of one's life.

Since the concept of "fear" can be translated several ways (including words such as "afraid" and "reverence"), it is put in italics, where present in the verses listed below.

1. Make sure it is the God of the Bible who you fear!

- a. In these three verses, the concept "God-fearing" is similar to our term "religious." The "fear" is not necessarily directed toward the God of the Bible.
- b. Used of unsaved people who tended to be religious, but who did not accept the good news of salvation.
Acts 13:50 - The Jews aroused the prominent God-fearing women and the leading men of the city, to start a persecution against Paul and Barnabas.
- c. Used of people who did listen to the message of good news, and who (at least in some cases) did turn to the God of the Bible.
Acts 17:4 - Some of the Jews became convinced about the truth and joined Paul and Silas, as did many God-fearing Greeks.
Acts 17:17 - Paul reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the God-fearing Greeks, as well as with anyone else he happened to meet.

2. Fear of God is a requirement, and must take precedence over all other types of fear.

- a. We owe it to God.
1 Chron. 16:25 - He is to be feared above all gods (v. 26+ explains why).
Jeremiah 10:7 - Who should not fear you, O King of the nations? This is what we owe you! ... There is no one like you!
- b. Two examples to illustrate its importance.
Proverbs 15:16 - Better a little with the fear of the Lord, than many possessions with turmoil.
Proverbs 31:30 - The woman who fears the Lord should be praised - rather than those who have only temporary qualities, such as charm (can be deceptive), and beauty (lasts but a moment).

- c. It must take priority over fear of people.
  - Matthew 10:28 - Do not fear those who kill the body, but are unable to kill the soul. Fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.
  - Luke 12:4-5 - Do not be afraid of those who kill the body, but after that can do no more. Instead, this is the one you should fear: Fear him who has power to throw you into hell, after the body is killed. Yes, I tell you, fear him.
- d. It is an all-encompassing attitude toward God, not merely fear of what he can do.
  - Exodus 20:20 - Do not be afraid (of the terrifying display of God's power - v. 18-19). God is testing you, so that the fear of God will be with you.

3. It is an obligation; it can be learned and chosen.

- a. People can command others to fear God.
  - Daniel 6:26 - I make a decree that in every part of my kingdom people must fear and tremble before the God of Daniel.
- b. It is a choice.

  - Deut. 17:19 - ... so that he may learn to fear the Lord his God.

  - Deut. 31:13 - Their children must hear this law and learn to fear the Lord your God.
  - Psalms 34:11 - My children, I will teach you the fear of the Lord.
- d. It can be understood.
  - Proverbs 2:5 - You will understand the fear of the Lord (if you choose to pursue wisdom - see the context).

4. It must have a constant and welcome presence in one's life.

- a. To be done continually.

THE COMMAND TO FEAR (or Revere) GOD

Found in 36 verses from our list

Only the "fear" part of the verses is listed. Many of the commands are connected with concepts such as service, love, obedience, etc. Some of the commands contrast fear of God (which we must have) to some type of sin (which we must avoid). However, our purpose at this point is simply to demonstrate the obligation we have to fear God, not to demonstrate its compatibility with other godly character traits, or its incompatibility with sinful conduct. Unless stated, the recipients of the command are people who belong to God, or who at least claim to.

In a few verses, the obligation is stated indirectly, or is implied in the form of a rhetorical question.

Since the concept of "fear" can be translated several ways (including words such as "afraid" and "reverence"), it is put in italics, where present in the verses listed below.

FEAR of GOD - as a FACT

Found in 73 verses from our list

These verses show us that the COMMAND to fear (seen in other verses) is not a mere wish or religious talk. Scripture shows us that people actually did what they were supposed to do. People today who refuse to fear God have no legitimate excuse!

In many instances, this fear is associated with some other character trait, or else results in some type of action. This is not our focus here, so only the fear part of the verses is listed. This word may be translated as fear, afraid, revere, etc., and is shown in italics.

THE ABSENCE OF FEAR TOWARD GOD

Found in 28 passages from our list

The modern church tends to be filled with false teachers who downplay (or even deny) the need for people to fear God. They never tell you what Scripture associates with the lack of such fear. In fact, they wouldn't want you to know what it says, for then you would realize how false their teachings really were!

Scripture describes the "fear of God" as a necessary response from all people. Our focus here is on the absence of this fear. There are a few other types of fear mentioned at the end of this study, most of which tend to exist only when the proper "fear of God" is absent.

Note that some of the following verses are based on their contrast to the presence of fear toward God - especially when the passage is from the Psalms, Proverbs, or other section of Scripture that is written in a poetic structure. In Hebrew poetry, contrasting or opposite concepts are often grouped together, to show the differences in their characteristics, or the consequences of each.

Since the concept of "fear" can be translated several ways (including words such as "afraid" and "reverence"), it is put in italics, where present in the verses listed below.

1. Some of the CAUSES for lack of fear.

- a. It is a choice.
Proverbs 1:29 - They did not choose to fear the Lord.
- b. The actions of others may encourage it (though we are still responsible for our choices).
Joshua 22:25 - (A potential situation that hadn't happened.) If the 10 tribes of Israel (west of the Jordan River) made the Jordan a boundary between them and the Reubenites and Gadites, and said, "You have no share in the Lord" ... they might cause the descendants of the Reubenites and Gadites to stop fearing the Lord.
- c. (Possibly) - A misguided reaction to one's circumstances during trials.
Job 6:14 (In some translations, such as NIV) - Job mentions the theoretical scenario of a despairing man who forsakes the fear of the Almighty. [Job didn't do this; the passage is difficult to translate and might have a somewhat different meaning.]
- d. It may be a judgment from God, because of our deliberate rejection of him and our determination to sin.
Isaiah 63:17 - (Isaiah prays in behalf of the nation who has rejected God. The people themselves couldn't care less about their true spiritual condition. They denied that there was any problem.) Why, O Lord, do you ... harden our hearts so we do not fear you? Return to us... [This is a warning to those who choose to abandon God and turn to sin. If you reject God, he will give you what you want: he will give you over to your sin. But in doing so, your heart will become hardened in your sin - and this will be part of his judgment against you. See also Romans 1.]
- e. Many of the items listed in the next section could also be put here.

2. Things ASSOCIATED with lack of fear.

- a. Some of these passages are direct statements; some are implied, being based on stated contrasts to what it means to have fear of God.
- b. All sorts of sinfulness (passages containing lists).
  - Psalm 36:1 - Concerning the sinfulness of the wicked: There is no fear of God before his eyes. [See v. 2 and following. These verses list many of the characteristics of the wicked.]
  - Malachi 3:5 - [The context contains a list of sins they willingly commit] ... but they do not fear me.
  - Romans 3:18 - There is no fear of God before their eyes. [See v. 10-17 for a description of these people. This verse is just the final summary, a quote of Psalm 36:1.]
- c. Lack of humility, disobedience to God.
  - Jeremiah 44:10 - They have not humbled themselves, shown reverence, or followed my law and the decrees.
- d. Despising the Lord.
  - Proverbs 14:2 - He who walks in uprightness fears the Lord; the person with devious ways despises him.
- e. Spiritual adultery (= putting other things ahead of God).
  - Jeremiah 3:8 - God speaking: I gave faithless Israel her certificate of divorce and sent her away (into captivity) because of her constant adultery. Yet her unfaithful sister Judah did not fear; but also went out and committed adultery.
- f. Rebellious - toward both God and people.
  - Proverbs 24:21 - Fear the Lord and the king; don't join with the rebellious.
  - Jeremiah 5:23-24 - These people are stubborn and rebellious ... They do not say, "Let us fear the Lord our God."
- g. Murdering others (here referring to the attitude of a nation).
  - Deut. 25:18 - (The Amalekites...) cut off all who were lagging behind... because they (the Amalekites) had no fear of God.
- h. Not caring about others; unconcerned about justice.
  - Luke 18:2-4 - There was a judge who neither feared God nor cared about people. ... He refused to grant justice to the woman (until she wore him out with her pleas). But he finally gave in, "even though I don't fear God or care about people."
- i. Fear of others.
  - Isaiah 57:11 - Whom have you so dreaded and feared so much, that you have lied to me, have ignored me and not even given it any thought? I have been silent for a long time (because of your sins)... is this the reason you do not fear me?

- j. Hating knowledge.
Proverbs 1:29 - They hated knowledge and did not choose to fear the Lord. (Other passages emphasize the connection between fear and knowledge. Example: Proverbs 1:7.)
- k. Moral folly.
Proverbs 1:7 - The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.
- l. Hard-hearted.
Proverbs 28:14 - Blessed is the man who always fears [the Lord]; but he who hardens his heart will meet disaster.
- m. Being hotheaded and self-confident.
Proverbs 14:16 - A wise man fears the Lord ... a fool is hotheaded and self-confident.

3. CONSEQUENCES of lack of fear.

- a. God will deal with them.
Psalm 55:19 - God, who is enthroned forever, will hear them and deal with them - men who have no fear of God.
- b. They will reap the consequences of their attitude and actions.
Proverbs 1:29 - They did not choose to fear the Lord, so... (they will eat the fruit of their ways - v. 31 - and other consequences in the following verses).
- c. Potential shortened life (or at least not gaining length of life).
Proverbs 10:27 - The fear of the Lord lengthens one's life; the years of the wicked are cut short.

Note: When nations (or groups) are judged, innocent people do suffer, because of the sins of the majority. In such cases, those who fear God look forward to the final Day of Justice, when all things will be made right.

REASONS TO FEAR GOD

Found in 67 passages (79 verses) from our list.

There are many reasons to fear God; and some people might be surprised to learn that the majority of those reasons have nothing to do with being judged by him! Those who think that fear of God exists only because of judgment have a very distorted, truncated concept of fear.

Before sin entered the world, fear was still the proper response to God. But there was no need for the punishment aspect that people tend to think about. It is only after we, the human race, rebelled and joined the side of the evil one, that judgment came to have the "negative" characteristics we tend to associate with it. Before that, any judgment that would have occurred would have only resulted in blessings! Even now, though we tend to think of judgment as a punishment against evil, there is still the aspect of blessings for those who choose to follow God.

The context of a verse will determine the nature of the fear that is mentioned. Some passages focus on the type of fear that Scripture commands us to have; others focus on the fear that people will experience when they don't have the proper "fear of God." A few of the passages have a greater focus on the "fear of judgment" (though it may be related to the fear of God).

Since the concept of "fear" can be translated several ways (including words such as "afraid" and "reverence"), it is put in italics, where present in the verses listed below.

THINGS ASSOCIATED WITH FEAR OF GOD

Found in 87 passages (95 verses) from our list.

Some of these passages are statements about people fearing God and (at the same time) doing certain other things. Some are commands in which several things are to be done at the same time. Whatever the nature of the statement (or command), one or more things are mentioned as occurring, existing, or required at the same time as fear of God.

This does not necessarily imply a direct cause-effect relationship between the items mentioned. (The context of each passage should be examined to determine what relationship exists.) Even so, certain things have a constant tendency to be associated with fear of God, while certain other things (normally the opposites) tend to not be associated with it. This should be instructive, and should influence our attitude toward fear of God, as well as toward the other things mentioned in the context.

In these passages, the concept of "fear" has various meanings, depending on the context. One passage may focus on a reverent fear that a follower of God will have, while another may focus on the terror that God's enemies will have. Take this into consideration when evaluating this concept. Consider this outline a worksheet that can be used to help develop one's "fear concept," rather than the final conclusion.

RESULTS OF FEARING GOD

Found in 83 passages (92 verses) from our list.

When the fear of God is present, there is a tendency for certain things to happen. Many of these things are so wonderful, that it leaves us questioning why anyone would ever want to not fear him! It is a great shame and a horrible evil, that false teachers so often try to turn people away from the fear of God - often under the pretext that "fear of God" and "fear of punishment" are the same thing, or that "fear of God" and "love of God" are incompatible opposites! They steal from people the very blessings, love and acceptance from God that they so greatly long for!

Some of the verses listed below may have application in a specific setting; others will have application at all times. In the Old Testament, some passages may have a greater focus on the physical blessings which are the result of such fear, and these may have less relevance at the present time (since we are under a different covenant - Hebrews 8:7-13). Yet even those with limited application, when viewed with the rest, will help to illustrate basic principles and trends. (Comments about the issue of "blessings" are included at the end of the study, and may help in providing a better understanding of how verses about blessings apply to us today.)

Since the concept of "fear" can be translated several ways (including words such as "afraid" and "reverence"), it is put in italics, where present in the verses listed below. Verses are summarized; check the Bible (and the context of the verses) for a better understanding of their significance. Consider this outline a worksheet that can be used to help develop one's "fear concept," rather than the final conclusion.

8. Comments about blessings (a note about Section 2).

- a. Note the context of the verses. Under the New Testament covenant, there may be a lesser emphasis on the present physical blessings (though at times such blessings may still exist).
- b. The follower of Jesus and the merely religious "church-goers" will often view blessings in opposite ways. The "church-goer" will often be focused on himself and his enjoyment of blessings, and on how he can get more blessings and enjoy them further. In contrast, the follower of Jesus will be focused on how he can love God and neighbor, whether or not the blessings are present.
- c. Blessings are not a guarantee of God's approval. In this present life, wicked people sometimes do experience blessings:
  - (a) Mere external obedience to God may result in some blessings, even though the obedience may not be a genuine expression of the person's heart.
  - (b) The blessings received by those who do fear God may benefit others around them who don't fear God.
  - (c) Injustice may result in temporary blessings for the wicked; but they will lose them in the end, and face a greater judgment than if they had not had them.
- d. Not all blessings are immediately received. In fact, some may not be received (at least in their fullness) until the Day of Justice.
- e. Many blessings (especially those we call "spiritual blessings") are not dependent on circumstances, and can exist even when circumstances are unpleasant. Come what may, those who fear God are blessed. (This is why scripture can tell us to rejoice when we are going through trials. Example - James 1:2.)
- f. Many of the passages in this study focus on the normal tendency that will occur when fear of God is present. Yet we also find passages which tell us that injustice in the world sometimes keeps physical blessings from occurring. (Look at Job's example, or at Asaph - Psalm 73.) We need to remember this, and (if applicable), look forward to the future Day of Justice, when all will be made right.
